

Join the Healthy Living Ambassadors!

Who: Youth ages 12-18 years old (by Oct. 1, 2019)

What: 4-H club designed to teach teens about healthy living, sustainability, and leadership. Must be able to commit to monthly community meetings, participate in at least 1 project per semester, and volunteer for 10 hours per semester. Club members will have the option to participate in project areas including: urban agriculture, outdoor adventures (Grand Canyon hiking trip), CPR certification, yoga, 4-H High Ropes Course, farm art, and more!

Where: Tucson Village Farm – 4210 N. Campbell Ave.

Why: Increase your knowledge and leadership skills, meet new people, travel to new places, explore career options, build your resumé and have fun!

When: Monthly Community Meetings:

- Grades 7 – 8, 1st Thurs. of the month
- Grades 9 – 12, 1st Tues. of the month (Oct – May) • 5:30 – 7:00 p.m.

Variable project and volunteer work times

How: Complete on-line application, available at www.tucsonvillagefarm.arizona.edu, between September 1-22, 2019.

Cost: $20/year, scholarships available upon request.

For more information, contact Natalie Shepp at: (520) 621-1006 natalieshepp@email.arizona.edu

 Tucson Village Farm

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA
Cooperative Extension

